LISTAHÁSKÓLI ÍSLANDS
Iceland University of the Arts

Accessibility Guide - Stakkahlíð 1

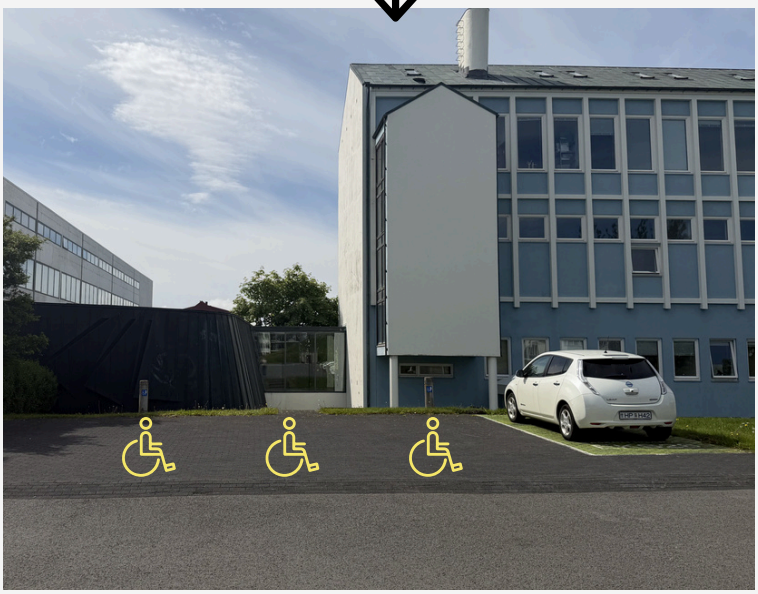

1. Arriving to the building, entrance 1

The building has two entrances, each with designated disability parking spaces.

Electric car charging stations
There are eight electric charging stations in the main parking lot for visitors who need to charge their car while on site.

Accessible Parking Spots
There ar various disability parking spots in front of the blue building, to the left of the entrance.

2. Entering via entrance 1

This entrance has two doors that open automatically when moving towards it, during opening hours (Monday - Friday 08:00 - 16:00, Fridays 08:00 - 13:00).

After the first door,
you'll pass through a short hallway.

From there, you enter one of the building's main corridors.

LISTAHÁSKÓLI ÍSLANDS
Iceland University of the Arts

3. Navigating the hallway: Lecture Halls

From this hallway, you are able to reach the two lecture halls.

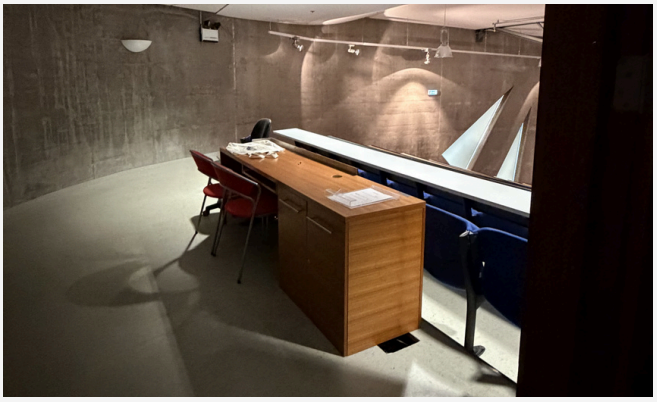

As you arrive in the lecture hall, take a left; there is a flat, unobstructed area suitable for wheelchair users.

This is identical in both lecture halls.

3. Navigating the hallway: Accessible Restrooms

Between the lecture halls, you'll find both an accessible restroom and gender-neutral restrooms, identified by the following signage. The bathroom includes a changing table.

! The door to the bathroom does not open automatically.

LISTAHÁSKÓLI ÍSLANDS
Iceland University of the Arts

4. Navigating the hallway: Workshops, IT, water station, printer

At the hallway's end, the workshop is directly in front of you, the IT department is to the left, and a water-refill station and printer are located on the right, by the lecture halls.

Digital fabrication workshop

Entrace to IT department

Water refill station

Printer

LISTAHÁSKÓLI ÍSLANDS
Iceland University of the Arts

3. Navigating the hallway: Elevator

Upon entering the hallway, take an immediate left to reach the elevator on the left-hand side.

After you press the call button,
the elevator doors will open automatically
when it reaches your floor.

You can use the elevator to reach the MA Deisgn, Fashion Design areas and the library below (1), or the BA & MA Design, and Architecture departments above (3).

3. Second floor: Accessible Restrooms

When you reach the second floor, take an immediate left; you'll find both an accessible restroom and a gender-neutral restroom, indicated by signs.

View from the elevator

Gender-neutral restroom

Accessible restroom, to the left of the gender-neutral bathroom.

The bathroom includes a toilet, a shower, a baby-changing station, and a resting bed for lying down.

4. Second floor: Classrooms

The doors to the classrooms are either open, or open with a student/staff card

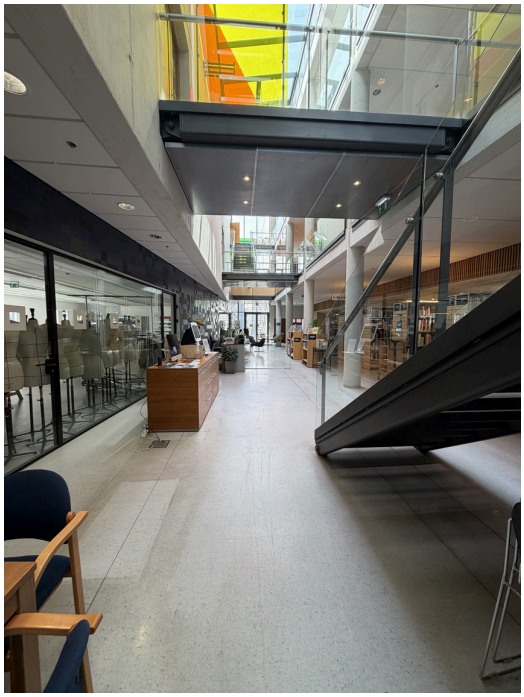

The hallway between the classrooms can feel narrow at times, but it still provides enough space for wheelchair users and those using walking support to move through comfortably.

4. Library and Fashion Design department

Arriving downstairs with the elevator

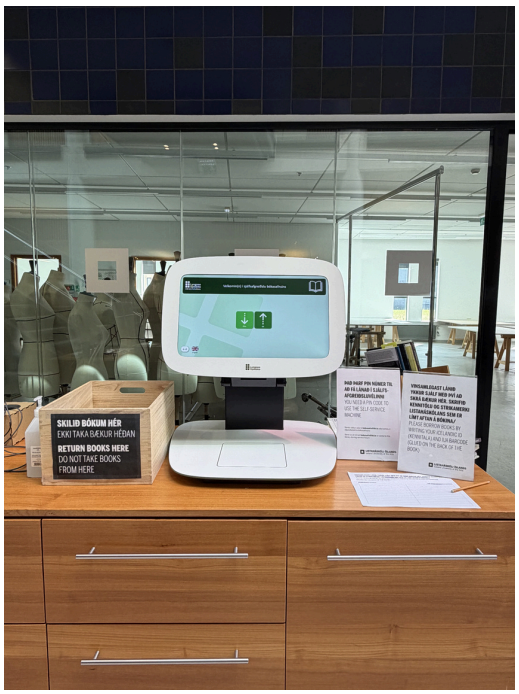

View of the library and the fashion department to the right

If you turn to the right, you'll find a small quiet area around the corner where you can read or decompress

The library staff are happy to assist during opening hours and can also help retrieve books from shelves that are placed high up

LISTAHÁSKÓLI ÍSLANDS
Iceland University of the Arts

4. Accessible Restroom in the Library

These signs guide you toward the restrooms, including both gender-neutral and accessible options.

You'll see them on the right-hand side when you arrive in the library

This restroom is spacious and accessible, but does not include a shower or baby-changing station.

LISTAHÁSKÓLI ÍSLANDS
Iceland University of the Arts

1. Arriving to the building, main entrance

The building can also be entered via the new main entrance, previously the Háskoli Íslands entrance.

Ramp Access to Entrance
There is a ramp next to the main entrance, leading directly to the automatically opening door.

Accessible Parking Spots
There are two disability parking spots in front of the white building.

LISTAHÁSKÓLI ÍSLANDS
Iceland University of the Arts

5. Reception and Meeting Point

After entering the building, take two right turns through the self-opening doors.
You will then arrive directly in front of the reception.

Until 15:00, staff are available to guide you and assist with any requests.

The main desk is located directly in front of the red wall.

5. Cafeteria

After passing the reception,
you'll have a clear view of the cafeteria.

It is open on weekdays from 12:00 to 13:00.

You can buy lunch there,
or bring your own food and heat it up in one of the microwaves.

Please be aware that this area can get quite noisy and overstimulating during busy hours.

If you are sensitive to sound or crowds,
you may prefer to use one of the nearby quiet rooms or sensory rooms.

5. Elevator

In the hallway connecting the main entrance/cafeteria and the other entrance, you'll find another elevator. It provides access to the classrooms of the Art Education department, as well as nearby privacy rooms and sensory rooms.

3 - Art Education Class Rooms and Offices
2 - Meeting rooms and book binding workshop
1 - International Office, Counselling, Property Management

Although narrow, the elevator accommodates wheelchairs and mobility devices.

LISTAHÁSKÓLI ÍSLANDS
Iceland University of the Arts

7. Privacy rooms (E-249, E-245), and a sensory room (E-241)

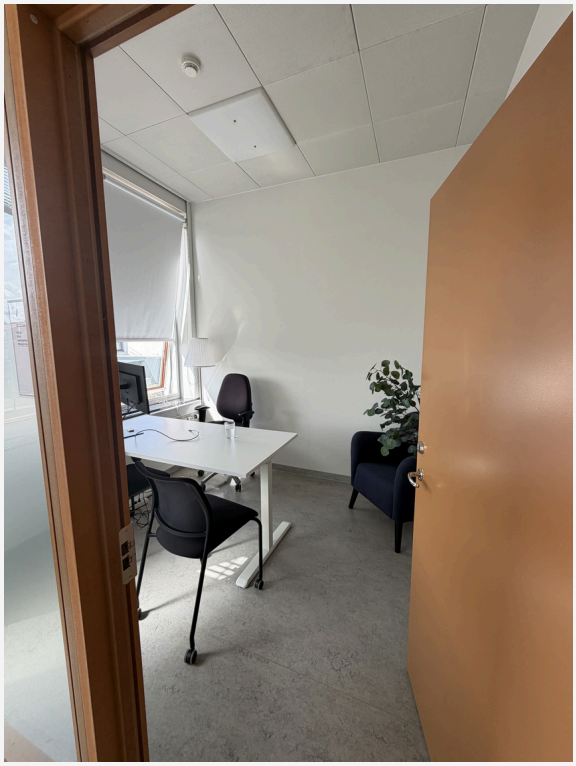

On the second floor, you'll find quiet rooms that can be used to decompress or take a break from the busy campus environment.

These rooms can be booked at the reception.

E-249

E-241

There is also a sensory room with a comfortable seat, blankets, and fidget toys for grounding and relaxation.

9. Meeting point and contact person

If you prefer a meeting point other than the reception, there is a green couch next to the elevator at the first entrance that is commonly used as a meeting point.

If you notice anything missing from this guide, need additional information, or would like to share feedback of any kind, please email marieke@lhi.is. We welcome all feedback and are happy to improve this document whenever needed.

June 2026